

NATURE-THEMED RV ARRIVING IN FT. LAUDERDALE

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. – Winterfest Boat Parade is the next destination for an eye-catching, nature-themed bus currently touring Florida. The 39-foot RV will arrive on Dec. 13 from Sanibel Island and is completely covered with photographic images of scenic beaches, tropical wildlife and stunning vistas from the portfolio of Renowned Fine Art Photographer Alan S. Maltz.

Over the next year, the RV will travel to as many as 20 events around the state, with stops at Sebring Fall Historic Classic in December and the Alan S. Maltz Gallery in Key West in January. It's an outreach effort of the Sanibel and Captiva Islands Chamber of Commerce, and visitors will be invited to enter the motor home, relax and learn more about the vacation destination and its sponsors.

Maltz donated the use of his artwork, which has garnered international acclaim from the American Advertising Federation, Florida Publishers Association, National Association of Independent Publishers, American Society of Interior Designers, the Printing Industries of Florida and Mid-America Publishers Association. He has been the official fine art photographer for VISIT FLORIDA since 2005 and the Official Wildlife Photographer for Florida since 2006.

In addition to private collections, Maltz's work has been featured in public venues such as Bank of America Tower at International Place in Miami; Carter Center in Atlanta; The Ritz-Carlton in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands; Canson in Caen, France; and Southwest Florida International Airport in Ft. Myers. He has also appeared in several national and regional publications, including Art News, The New Yorker, Robb Report, US Airways Magazine, The Philadelphia Inquirer, New York Post and The Miami Herald.
